moment a gang of masked raiders raided a bitcoin store on a full view of stunned onlookers.

The raiders rushed from the Bitcoin Exchange store on Formans Road to a blue Seat Leon parked across the pavement directly outside.

Three black and wearing balaclavas scooted back and forth, stuffing the car boot. Watch the dramatic footage of the RAID above.

One of the raiders filled the front seat, while the other two filled the car with what appeared to be thin long strips from the Bitcoin store.
